

Floyd William Webster

Floyd W. Webster passed away Sunday, July 15, 2001, in Francis.

Born Oct. 8, 1919, the son of William and Lilian Widdison Webster. Floyd worked in the Park City Mines as a miner and a mechanic. He enjoyed fishing and hunting, and he had a Green Thumb.

He loved to tinker on and rejuvenate old engines and just about anything else. Earlier in life, he worked for the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Survived by two daughters, Doris Ann LaFay, Francis; Beth Ann (Jerry) Walton, Tooele; four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Preceded in death by his wife, Alice; one brother and one sister.

Graveside services will be held Wednesday, July 18, in the Charleston Cemetery.